NOTE

Until cancellation has been completed (or the limited partnership's certificate of registration to transact business is canceled for failure to pay its annual registration fee, maintain a registered office and registered agent, or some other reason), the limited partnership will remain active on the Commission's records and remain liable for the assessment and payment of annual registration fees, even though the limited partnership has been canceled in its home jurisdiction, has stopped transacting business in Virginia, or has wound up its business and affairs.

Whenever the certificate of registration to transact business in this Commonwealth of a foreign limited partnership that is registered as a foreign registered limited liability partnership is canceled, the foreign limited partnership's registration as a foreign registered limited liability partnership shall thereupon be automatically revoked. See § 50-73.137:1 B of the Code of Virginia.
