

FREQUENTLY ASKED QUESTIONS

Q: How does the American Rescue Plan Act affect me?

A: More consumers will qualify for financial help to purchase coverage. If you already get tax credits, you could qualify for additional tax credits or a plan with lower out-of-pocket costs. Visit Healthcare.gov to shop plans available in your area.

- Current enrollees should update their accounts to receive updated tax credit results. You must log into your account at Healthcare.gov/login and reselect your current plan (or choose a new plan). Otherwise, the increased financial help will be received when you file federal taxes in 2022. Important: Consider how much you've paid this year towards your deductible when deciding if changing plans is best for you.
- Consumers eligible for Unemployment Insurance Benefits for any 1-week in 2021 may be eligible for zero premium coverage with low or no deductible. Visit Healthcare.gov to shop plans available in your area.
- The American Rescue Plan Act forgives any excess 2020 tax credits owed back under reconciliation. To qualify, complete IRS Form 8962 when you file federal taxes.
- If you lost your job or your hours were reduced, you can get free COBRA benefits from April 1-September 30, 2021. If you qualify, your employer will provide you information by May 30, 2021. Make sure you compare plans at Healthcare.gov to see which option is best for you.
